Isadore Hall Marched to OPPOSE THOUSANDS of Immigrant Farm Workers

The exact same farm workers he will judge daily at ALRB

Isadore Hall and fake farm workers march to demand that an unconstitutional "contract" be forced on THOUSANDS of REAL farm workers against their will.

Thousands of workers were abandoned by UFW for 20 years. Then UFW suddenly returned to force the employees to pay UFW or lose their jobs even though the UFW had done nothing for them. The employees erupted into the largest farm labor protests in California's history.

The UFW wanted to FORCE an ALRB-written contract on the employees against their will and without a vote, even though the employees had a history of earning the industry's highest pay (much higher than the small quantity of employees who work under UFW contracts).¹

On October 22, 2014, Isadore Hall marched with the UFW and FAKE farm workers against the industry's highest-paid REAL farm workers fighting to stop the UFW from forcing a contract on them against their will.^{2,3}

- Hall knew the workers did not want the contract forced on them. In fact, the court of appeals ruled unconstitutional the “contract” Hall wanted forced on the workers against their will.⁴
- Hall knew the workers would be FIRED if they didn't pay UFW even though UFW had disappeared for 20 years and never had a contract there before.⁵
- Hall knew that the “contract” would strip the workers from the right to continue to protest by the thousands against UFW and ALRB.⁶
- Hall knew the workers had voted and wanted their votes counted (just like Hall's votes are counted), but Hall supported UFW's efforts to destroy those votes instead.⁷
- Hall knew he was opposing the largest single farm labor movement in California's history.^{8,9}
- Hall knew that he was advocating the destruction of thousands of votes.¹⁰

Since then, 2,500 of those workers lost their $20 hour jobs when the farmer ripped out his vineyards.^{11,12}

Thousands of REAL IMMIGRANT farm workers fighting for their civil rights against UFW and Isadore Hall who want them fired if they don't pay UFW even though UFW was gone for 20 years.
